Designed for media teachers wanting the
- opportunity to network and study with media teachers from across the nation,
- practical hands-on experience with copy writing, cameras, editing and using Adobe and Final Cut Pro,
- upward movement in the pay scale and
- improve writing and teaching skills.

Drury’s 36-credit hour graduate program involves
- attending Student Teacher Network (Camp STN) for two one-week summer sessions (additional fees apply),
- additional coursework is offered online and
- up to nine transfer hours can be accepted.

Financial aid is available to those who qualify.

18-hour Instructional Technology/Media Graduate Certificate is also available.

For more information please contact our Graduate Programs Office at (417) 873-6948 or grad@drury.edu.