2015/16 FACULTY RESEARCH SERIES

Thursday, September 3, 11:00 a.m. at the Olin Room, Olin Library

DR. ERIN KENNY
Associate Professor, Department of Political Science and Director of the Teaching & Learning Center
Skeptical Intimacies: Higher Education, Kinship & Land Reform in Tanzania

Thursday, October 1, 11:00 a.m. at the Olin Room, Olin Library

DR. JEFF VANDENBERG
Professor and Director of Middle East Studies, Department of Political Science
Tunisian Democratization and the Regionalization of Arab Politics after the Uprisings in collaboration with Dhia Ben Ali

Thursday, November 5, 11:00 a.m. at the Olin Room, Olin Library

DR. ED WILLIAMSON
Associate Professor, School of Education & Child Development
The Early Educational Experiences of George W. Carver, (ca. 1864-1876)

Thursday, February 4, 11:00 a.m. at the Olin Room, Olin Library

DR. CHARLES TAYLOR
Professor and Graduate Programs Director, Department of Communication
On the Origin(s) of the Origin of Species: Rhetorical and Epistemological Gerrymandering

Thursday, March 3, 11:00 a.m. at the Olin Room, Olin Library

DR. IOANA POPESCU
Associate Professor, Department of Biology
Wildflowers of Romania: Building a Field Guide

Thursday, April 7, 11:00 a.m. at LIB 006, Olin Library

ASIKAA COSGROVE
Instructor and Graduate Programs Director, School of Education & Child Development
Rising to the Challenge: The Effects of Gamification on Self-Efficacy and Persistence in Virtual Worlds

The Faculty Research Series is sponsored by the Office of Academic Affairs and the Teaching & Learning Center. All talks are free and open to members of the Springfield community.