

Statement of Financial Support for International Applicants

Name of Student _____

Mailing Address _____

I. Ability to cover costs Proof of adequate funds to cover college and living expenses while in the United States is of major concern to universities and the U.S. government as well as to students. To complete the admission process and satisfy consular officials' requests for financial documentation, please read the cost information carefully and be sure to send all supporting financial documents requested below. The form I-20, the certificate of student visa eligibility, can only be issued after the student has submitted full financial documentation to the admission office. A student coming to the United States with insufficient funds will encounter many difficulties which may include being required to withdraw from the university and return home.

Listed below are estimated costs for the upcoming school year. Additional estimated expenses a student can expect to pay include: amount of travel, personal expenses, health insurance and emergencies. You should expect the total annual cost to increase by three to six percent each year.
