Jefferson Park North is gender-neutral. Residents may select a roommate of a different gender. In case of a vacancy in a unit, the Housing Office will NOT ASSIGN a roommate of opposite gender. If one of the roommates moves out, then the apartment will become the gender of the remaining roommate. Men and women will NOT be placed together unless they mutually select each other.

This contract is for part of the summer & the 2012-2013 academic year (minimum May 26, 2012 until check-out in May 2013), depending on the option selected below. I certify that I will be enrolled as a full-time Drury day school student for both fall and spring semesters. I agree to pay room and board fees for the summer and both fall and spring semesters, which will be posted to my student account. I authorize Drury University to charge my account for all room and board fees, and use monies from federal funds, grants, loans and other sources to pay these charges. I agree to pay interest of 1% per month, collection costs, and legal fees on unpaid balances. Charges made by Drury University for tuition, room, board, and fees may be paid either in full or by installments as indicated in the financial section of the Drury University catalog prior to the start of classes or entry into campus housing. Students admitted to university housing mid-year will only be billed for the time they occupy campus housing and for the full cost of the meal plan. I also understand and agree that (1) Drury University reserves the right to refuse any application for accommodations in campus housing upon the return of the deposit; (2) This contract is for the summer and entire academic year, or, if application is for accommodations after the start of the contract period, for that part of the year remaining after the effective date of the assignment of accommodations; (3) I cannot cancel this contract either before or during the summer of 2012 and 2012-2013 academic year except for dismissal from the university because of academic reasons. Students who withdraw from Drury University before the end of the year should consult the Drury University catalog regarding refunds; (4) Room and board will be available according to the university calendar; (5) If I fail to occupy assigned accommodations on or before the first day of classes of the period covered by this contract without giving the Housing Office notice of my delayed arrival, the accommodations may be assigned to another student, but delayed arrival shall not relieve me of my responsibility for accepting other available accommodations assigned to me. I have read and agree to the terms and conditions stated in the academic catalog and will review the Community Standards Handbook. I agree to all of the terms, conditions and provisions set out on the reverse side hereof, and agree that they constitute a part of this contract as fully as if set out over my signature.

Jefferson Park North & West Policies, Regulations, and Conditions

To help foster and encourage an atmosphere of respect and cooperation, the following regulations are in effect and are a part of the contract between the university and the residents of Jefferson Park and their guests.

1. The student agrees to abide by the laws of the State of Missouri and the ordinances of the City of Springfield.
2. Illegal use of intoxicating beverages is not allowed. Students (and/or guests) of legal age (21+) may possess and consume beer and fermented alcoholic beverages ONLY in the privacy of their own residence unit with the door closed. Consumption is allowed in the presence of your roommate; however, individuals under legal age shall not buy, drink or possess (hold) alcoholic beverages. Guests must be of legal age. Hard alcohol (defined as any beverage containing distilled alcohol) is prohibited on Drury's campus, as well as all alcoholic energy drinks that contain greater than 5.9% alcohol content. Kegs and participation in drinking games are prohibited. See the Drury University Alcohol Policy for more detailed information.
3. Alcohol paraphernalia (items used for the storage or consumption of alcoholic substances), including decorative alcohol containers of any kind, is prohibited in campus housing.
4. Any illegal use, possession or trafficking of drugs or paraphernalia is forbidden.
5. Weapons of any kind are not permitted on the university campus.
6. Gambling is not permitted on the university campus.
7. Pets (except fish) are not permitted in campus housing. A minimum $150.00 fine will automatically be charged to your student account for allowing animals in your residence.
8. Candles (with or without wicks), incense, fireworks, halogen lamps, etc., pose possible fire hazards and are prohibited in campus housing.
9. The following appliances are permitted in apartments, if they are UL approved: coffeemakers, toasters, toaster ovens, air popcorn poppers, hot pots/plates, crock pots, electric griddles, George Foreman grills, sandwich makers, additional mini-fridges no more than 4.0 cubic feet, razors, radios, stereos, computers and portable television sets, lava lamps, plug-in air fresheners. The following items are not allowed anywhere in campus housing: items that are not UL approved, extension cords, microwaves, oil popcorn poppers, deep fat fryers, refrigerators larger than 4.0 cubic feet, space heaters or any other appliance with open coils.
10. Cable service is provided. Students may opt-in to local phone service. Each student is responsible for providing his/her own phone and/or TV. Satellite dishes are not permitted.
11. Quiet hours should be observed from 10pm to 10am. Courtesy hours should be observed 24-hours per day. Noise, from any source, at all times, must be maintained at levels where they will not infringe upon the study or sleep habits of others.
12. Tacks, nails and tape damage walls, paint and woodwork. Suspend items using appropriate products and use university-provided bulletin boards to hang items.
13. 1212 & 1218 come with university furniture that should remain intact, and mirrors, bulletin boards, etc., should remain attached to walls. All university furniture must remain in the assigned unit. Jeff West (1225) is unfurnished.
14. Rooms should be kept locked when not occupied. The university accepts no responsibility for lost, stolen or damaged articles.
15. Loss of key will cost $50 for replacement key and core.
16. Student Life Staff and maintenance/custodial/technology services personnel will inspect and conduct health and safety checks in all residential rooms and facilities periodically for damages and policy violations/safety concerns/work orders. They also reserve the right to enter the privacy of a student's room or living facility in case of emergency (such as fire, health emergencies, probable violation of university policy, etc.).
17. Residents will be held individually responsible for any damage done to their rooms and may be held collectively responsible for any other damage occurring to individual rooms or campus housing facilities. Damage to your room should be reported to the Housing Office immediately upon discovery. Rooms and common areas must be kept clean by the residents. Public area damages will be assessed as needed and charged to appropriate accounts.
18. Vandalism or malicious destruction or misuse of a resident's property may be grounds for fines or removal from Drury housing.
19. Individuals are personally responsible for upholding university policy in all university housing facilities and will be held personally accountable should violations occur. Residents are held responsible for their guests.
20. Guests may not spend the night more than three nights in a 1-week period without prior Housing Office approval.
21. A $200 room deposit is required of each resident and should be sent in with this contract to the Housing Office, 900 N. Benton, Springfield, MO 65802. Students with clean, undamaged rooms will have their deposit carried forward to the next academic year unless they are graduating or not returning to university housing the following year. Damage to rooms and/or the necessity of the university cleaning a room will result in damage fines and possible loss of housing deposit. Students who do not follow proper check-out procedures will have a $100 charge posted to their account.
22. Sub-leasing is not allowed, and students who sublease will be sanctioned. No one may move in or out of campus housing without approval of the Housing Office. Approval is granted first through the Housing Office and then it is referred to the Vice President for Student Affairs.
23. Tobacco is prohibited on campus. Individuals using tobacco may be sanctioned. Cigarette debris on ground outside residential units is subject to fines.
24. Tampering with fire alarm systems, alarm pull stations, smoke detectors, fire extinguishers, and safety equipment is prohibited. Doing so will result in a fine. All students are expected to evacuate facilities during emergency alarms and comply with the requests of university personnel. Students will be fined for noncompliance and may be evicted from campus housing for interfering with safety and security procedures.
25. University rooms and public areas are not to be used as a location for the operation of any business or enterprise; the sale of any services or products. Residents may not use university housing facilities for a commercial purpose or solicit within the buildings. Violations should be reported to the Dean of Students Office.
26. Students may not work on or wash motorized vehicles on the premises.
27. Jefferson Park North & West residents must live on campus from May 26, 2012 through the end of the 12-13 academic year. Summer housing requires a separate charge of $18 a night. Students who leave Drury at Winter Break due to unexpected circumstances must check out in December by the advertised date. Break housing fees of $18 a night will be applied to the student's account if s/he stays later than the contract period.
28. Room assignments are made in the Housing Office. While every effort will be made to assign compatible individuals, the decision of the Housing Office is final. The student participant in this contract agrees to accept the roommate(s) assigned to him or her. The Housing Office will facilitate a room consolidation process as often as necessary to save energy and make necessary repairs to facilities.

The Housing Office reserves the right to cancel this housing contract at any time with NO REFUNDS.
