2007 SEASON PREVIEW

Alf Bilbao's first season as coach of the Drury women's soccer team was an undeniable hit, as the Panthers posted a 9-6-3 overall mark, their most victories since 1998.

But Bilbao, who also doubles as the head coach of the DU men's soccer squad, will be pushing a talented returning group and large incoming class of freshmen to strive for even greater heights in 2007 as the Panthers seek to build upon their 6-5-2 record in Great Lakes Valley Conference play, which left them just outside the eight-team field for the league's post-season tournament.

Top returnees include junior midfielder/forward Sarah Goodman, who picked up honorable mention All-GLVC honors for a second straight year last fall after scoring one goal and adding five assists; junior forward Melissa Perry, who led DU in scoring with five goals and an assist (11 points), including three game-winners; junior defender Chloe Moushey, who has anchored the Panthers' back line the last two seasons; and junior keeper Barri Bulla, who allowed just 16 goals and posted nine shutouts while playing every minute of every game as DU's only goalie on the roster in 2006. Also returning are junior forward Tina Athanasiadis, who had four goals in a reserve role last season, and sophomore Olivia Phillipart de Foy, who found the net three times in her rookie season.

A group of 11 newcomers to the roster includes sophomore NCAA Division I transfers Mandi Little and Micah Little from Missouri State and Bailey Randol of Northern Iowa and eight freshmen, including a pair of goal keepers in Jessie Sanderson from Jefferson City and Laura Welch from St. Louis. They join a DU unit that will feature just two seniors (Rachel Rasbold and Jessie Sierzchula) and freshmen or sophomores holding 16 of the 23 spots on the roster.
