Greek Consent for Information Release

As a part of the Drury University Greek community grade checks, financial information, and behavioral information is requested by chapter presidents and other specific members of the Greek community. By law, Drury University is not permitted to give any information to any person about a student’s academics, financial situation, or disciplinary information without the individual’s consent. This form will remain effective for the duration of the student’s involvement in a Greek organization.

The information, as listed, will ONLY be permitted to chapter alumnae, chapter advisors, and chapter leadership.

You may choose to not release information to the chapter, in which case information will only be released after special permission is given.

All Greek students are requested to complete the form below, sign, and submit.

PART ONE: Academic Information
Periodic grade checks may be required for members of a Greek organization. This allows for chapters to received grade information in order to make sure that members are in good standings with the chapter’s academic requirements. Grades will be released at midterms, the end of semester, and any other necessary times. If you choose to not release your grades there is a chance that the chapter will not be able to secure your membership due to grade requirements.

☐ I give my permission for related information to be released.

PART TWO: Financial Information
Financial information is only relevant to the outlined people in special cases. Examples of these special cases would include when an active fraternity member is exempt from living in the house due to financial difficulties and when an active sorority or fraternity member will not be returning to Drury because of financial difficulties. The reasons for exemption will not be disclosure to the outlined people.

☐ I give my permission for related information to be released.

PART THREE: Disciplinary Information
Greek members are expected to stay in good standing with Drury University. If a situation warrants that requires the intervention of Drury University’s Judicial Board, the member’s chapter will be informed of the disciplinary actions.

☐ I give my permission for related information to be released.

My signature on this form verifies that I agree to the previous statements and I will comply with any action, as outlined here, as deemed necessary by my Greek chapter and the Student Activities Office.
