Catherine Clark Taylor Scholarship

Student name: ___________________________ Drury ID#: ___________________________

Drury email: ___________________________ Year and semester: Fall __ Spring ___________

This semester based scholarship is available for graduate students pursuing an education degree with an emphasis in Special Education. The scholarship is dependent upon available funds and students must reapply each semester, fall and spring only.

Requirements needed for scholarship consideration:

- Students must be fully accepted in good standing (not admitted on probation or in default on student loans) to a degree seeking program in the graduate program with an emphasis in Special Education.
- Students must maintain a GPA of 3.00 or higher.
- Students must have a current FAFSA on file with Drury University Financial Aid Office for consideration.
- Students will be selected based upon a combination of GPA and demonstrated financial need.
- The Catherine Clark Taylor scholarship cannot be combined with other Drury Scholarships.
- Award amounts will be pro-rated on the number of hours a student is enrolled.
- Students must apply each semester for renewal. The deadline for application is the drop/add date of each semester, (approximately two weeks after school starts).

By submitting an application for the Catherine Clark Taylor Scholarship, I understand and agree to the following terms: (must check to submit)

☐ I have provided accurate and honest information, and I understand that misrepresentation of my credentials could result in the reduction or elimination of scholarship funding. If I am asked to provide proof of any credentials above, I agree to do so. Acceptance of any scholarship constitutes an agreement to write an acknowledgement letter to the donor.
☐ If the number of hours in which I am enrolled is reduced, my scholarship will be reduced accordingly.
☐ I must reapply for this scholarship and meet all requirements of the award if I wish to receive it in future semesters.
