Graduation Rates

100% due to our definition of a completer. A candidate is considered a completer if they obtain their degree and meet all State of Missouri certification requirements for exit assessment and performance evaluation.

To provide a fuller picture of success in our teacher preparation programs, the table below provides data on success rates of students enrolled in student teaching.

Success Rates in Student Teaching

Analysis and Results: Data in the table below provides strong evidence of successful student teaching completion rates for Drury University. All three previous academic years have completion rates with the 90-100% range.

!Student Teacher Completion Rate