Year Four

Market Yourself

- Update your LinkedIn profile and CCN, keep your master resume and cover letter up-to-date and polished.
- Join related professional organizations while you are a student. Many of these groups can be found on LinkedIn as well.
- Complete a second internship.
- Build a base professional wardrobe. Keep an eye out for sales and invest in quality, basic pieces.
- Target the specific graduate degree or types of positions to pursue.
- Ask 3 – 5 professional contacts if they would be willing to serve as your professional references, then create a reference page. Ask for letters of recommendation for your portfolio.
- Prepare your job search or graduate application materials; make sure to keep them organized and orderly.
- Apply for jobs or graduate schools, or even both, if you haven’t decided on your path.
- Plan for post-graduation by taking a look at your finances and the options you have for loan repayment.
- Learn about and practice for job/professional school interviews with Big Interview at drury.biginterview.com. Make sure to record and watch yourself at least once. Ask others to review and consider scheduling an in-person mock interview with CP&D staff.
- Double check that your web presence is professional and consistent, including your LinkedIn profile and a cleaned up social media presence. Be sure to Google your name!
