

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Final examinations will be given during the last week of the semester as indicated on the university calendar.

How to interpret the exam schedule: The top and left borders indicate the date and time block of the exam. Locate the box that most closely represents a regular class meeting schedule to determine when the final exam will be held.

Thursday, May 7 th	8am MWF	9:30am TR	TBA	TBA
Friday, May 8th

All evening and weekend final exams will be given during the final class period.

Per university policy, final grades are due to students within 48 hours. The deadline for reporting grades is 8:00 am on the Monday following finals week.

Final exams will take place in the regular class meeting place unless other arrangements are made.

Instructors will arrange for TBA final exams for courses that do not comply with the normal course format and therefore are not listed on the schedule above.

All TBA classes will arrange for exams at the discretion of the professor and/or department chair.

Independent course grades (research, internships, and directed studies) must be reported by 8:00 am on the Monday after finals week.

NOTE: Students who have more than two examinations scheduled for the same day may secure permission from the professor to reschedule an examination at a time that is mutually agreeable but before 5pm Friday of finals week.
