

Hammons School of Architecture Scholarship Application Form

Awards for 2026-~~27~~

In addition to scholarships determined and granted through Drury University's financial aid process, a limited number of donor-funded scholarships are awarded directly by HSA. Students wishing to be considered for one of these scholarships must complete this application form and submit a financial needs essay by the deadline stated below. Scholarship recipients will be notified during the summer following application.

Students currently in HSA's 2nd, 3rd, or 4th year may apply. Scholarships are awarded based on various factors as determined by donors and the HSA Scholarship Committee. Student financial need is typically the primary consideration.

Please provide the following information:

Current Year level: _____

Do you wish to be considered for study-abroad scholarships? Yes _____

No _____

Note: If you answered "yes" above, please provide below the intended study-abroad semester (or summer) and location.

Intended study-abroad experience and semester: _____

Essay:

Along with this application form, please submit an essay no more than 500 words in length in which you clearly explain how being awarded this scholarship would address specific needs and challenges you have encountered in funding your education.

Application Deadline: Monday March 2, 2026, 5 pm

This signed application form as well as your application essay must be received by the HSA Dean no later than the deadline stated above. Scholarship decisions and funding will apply for the following academic year or, in the case of summer short-term study abroad programs, the following summer.

Note: by submitting this form you agree to allow members of the HSA Scholarship Committee as well as the HSA administration to access your academic and FAFSA information.
