

Hammons School of Architecture Scholarship Application Form

In addition to scholarships determined and granted through Drury University's financial aid process, a limited number of donor-funded scholarships are awarded by consultation with HSA faculty and administrators. Any student wishing to be considered for one of these scholarships must complete this application form and submit a needs essay by the deadline stated below. Scholarship recipients will be notified by the conclusion of the academic year during which the application is made.

Scholarships are awarded based on various factors as determined by donors and the HSA Scholarships Committee. Student financial need is typically the primary consideration.

Please provide the following information:

Name: _____

Current Year Level: _____

Do you wish to be considered for study-abroad scholarships? Yes _____

No _____

Note: If you answered "yes" above, please provide below the intended study-abroad semester (or summer) and location. Your Study Abroad Intention Form must also be on file and up to date.

Intended study-abroad experience and semester:

Along with this application form, please submit an essay no more than 500 words in length in which you clearly explain how being awarded an HSA Scholarship would address specific needs and challenges you have encountered in funding your education.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Application Deadline: February 1st

This signed application form as well as your application essay must be received by the HSA Dean no later than the deadline stated above. Scholarship decisions and funding will apply for the following academic year or, in the case of summer short-term Study Abroad programs, the following summer.

Note: by submitting this form you agree to allow members of the HSA Scholarships Committee as well as the HSA administration to access your FAFSA information.