Re: High School Student – Associate Degree

This letter is to confirm that _____ has the academic rigor and personal attributes to complete a Drury University Associate Degree in General Studies by their high school graduation date of _____.

This student has a high school GPA of at least 2.5.

All parties agree to earn an associate degree while enrolled in high school is a commitment to academic excellence beyond the requirements of a high school diploma set forth by DESE (Department of Elementary and Secondary Education) and the student's high school.

Drury University is requiring signed permission from the high school principal, the high school counselor, the student's legal parent/guardian, and the student as all parties collaborate to help support this student in obtaining a Drury University Associate Degree in General Studies.

If you agree the student above has the academic and personal ability to successfully complete an associate degree, please sign and date below.

Thank you,
