

Drury University

School of Education and Child Development

Teacher Education Program

Admission Requirements Checklist

- _____ Application submitted to the School of Education and Child Development
 Located at <https://www.drury.edu/education/teacher-education-program-application/>

- _____ Drury and overall cumulative GPA of 2.75 or above

- _____ At least 12 credit hours must be completed at Drury at the time of application (waived with AA or AAT)

- _____ ACT or SAT score must be on file if 1) applicant graduated high school within five years of date of application to teacher education and 2) began college coursework within one year of high school graduation

- _____ Passing score on a state required entrance exam. All undergraduate and elementary Post-Bac students are required to pass one of the entrance exams (non-elementary Post Bac students are exempt)
 - ACT composite score of at least 20
 - OR
 - Missouri General Education Assessment (MoGEA)
http://www.mo.nesinc.com/TestView.aspx?f=HTML_FRAG/MO066_TestPage.html
 Passing score information can be found at <http://www.drury.edu/du/education/MoGEA-Entrance-Exam/>
 Score reports are posted to your account for 45 days so be sure to access the PDF results during that timeframe

- _____ Competency in written and oral communications:
 Grade of C or higher in one oral communication or speech course
 Grade of C or higher in two writing composition courses (literature courses do not count)

- _____ Completion of the six foundations of teaching courses
Undergraduate courses must be completed with a C or higher (C- is not sufficient)
Graduate courses must be completed with a B- or higher

EDUC 200 or SCI 621 EDUC 201/EDUC 208 EDUC 212/EDUC 213	EDUC 203/SS 624 or EDUC 205/EDUC 621 EDUC 207 or EDUC 607 EDUC 302 or EDUC 605
---	--

- _____ Criminal background check
 Online registration instructions located at <http://www.drury.edu/education/Practicum-Workshops/>

- _____ Educator Disposition Assessment (EDA) completed by one Drury SECD Faculty member upon your request.
 *If transferring into Drury University, this may be completed during your first semester.