

NONPROFIT LEADERSHIP GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

Program highlights

-  Complete in less than a year
-  12 credit hours
-  Courses are 100 percent online
-  Tuition and fees are less than $6,000
-  Federal financial aid eligible

Areas of study

- Financial Oversight for Nonprofit Organizations
- Foundations of Nonprofit and Civic Leadership
- Governance and Executive Leadership
- Fundraising and Philanthropy

Points of distinction

- Faculty are on the front lines of community change
- Highly interactive courses emphasize peer-to-peer learning and applied problem solving
- Certificate courses count toward the Master of Nonprofit and Civic Leadership

For more information, contact:

Dr. Regina Waters, emeritus professor and program director
(417) 873-7251 or rwaters@drury.edu

Jeff Riggins, graduate admissions specialist and program coordinator
(417) 873-7075 or jriggins01@drury.edu

drury.edu/NPCL

“It took me to the next level and opened up my career opportunities. The information we covered was so relevant that I could take it into work and apply it to my job immediately.”

- Felicia Gummi MNCL '17
Director of Philanthropy
Texas Can Academies - Dallas